

Do you want more of a say about your medical treatment or care? Do you want to be more in control of your health and wellbeing?

Healthwatch Warwickshire - the group which represents patients is holding a series of public meetings aimed at giving you a say in health and social care.

We want to hear your views, and your experiences - whether they're good or bad. Tell us what's working, and what isn't.

What you tell us could help shape the future of health and social care across Warwickshire for years to come.

And we'll even lay on lunch.

YOUR voice can be heard at your local meeting
