A Wolvey resident, Mrs Barbara Jones presented a proposal for an intergenerational arts project . This would be a celebration of play in Wolvey over the past sixty years , linked to the Queen's Diamond Jubilee celebrations. If agreed an application for funding will be made to the Warwickshire LEADER programme

11.189 Comment and information from members of the public and members with a prejudicial interest

The difficulties of engaging teenagers in the project was discussed. There are some young villagers who are interested in music and are members of a band. It is hoped this can be a way to encourage teenage involvement.
