

OPEN AFTERNOONS

ST JOHN THE BAPTIST CHURCH
WOLVEY

SUNDAY 2ND AUGUST 2015

2pm 'til 4pm

Did you know that your village Church is on a Saxon knoll with 12th Century origins?
Or that the bells in the Church tower have names?
See where soldiers sharpened their arrows on the Church Stone.
Discover why parishioners got a free loaf of bread one day of the year.
Learn about Thomas De Wolvey and Alice De Astley.

Discover these secrets and more...
Children's craft activity and Children's Guide of Church

Children's Activity in July will be run by the Wolvey Brownies
also in attendance *The Bell Ringers & Wolvey History Group

OR

Simply just join us for a drink, cake and chat in the Millennium Building next to the Church.

In aid of Church Fabric Fund