

OPEN AFTERNOON

ST JOHN THE BAPTIST CHURCH WOLVEY

SUNDAY 7TH JUNE 2015
2pm 'til 4 pm

Did you know that your village Church is built on a Saxon knoll and has 12th Century origins?

Or that the bells in the Church tower have names?

See where soldiers sharpened their arrows on the Church Stone.

Discover why parishioners got a free loaf of bread one day of the year.

Learn about Thomas De Wolvey and Alice De Astley.

Discover these secrets and more...

Children's craft activity and Children's Guide of Church

Children's Activity run this month by the WOLVEY YOUTH GROUP

OR

Simply just join us for a drink, cake and chat in the Millennium Building next to the Church.

In aid of Church Fabric Fund